ICLRU JOINS THE RU COMMUNITY GARDENING PROJECT

ICLRU was invited to participate in RU's community gardening project. We're starting by planting tomatoes and peppers in a 5'x 10' demonstration container garden on the far northeast edge of the Schaumburg Campus (across from IKEA). Produce will be donated to a local food pantry. Many thanks to ICLRU members and master gardeners, Randi Long and Diane McCarthy for sharing their experience and donating seedlings and materials to help us get this new community project off the ground.

ICLRU JOINS THE RU COMMUNITY
GARDENING PROJECT

Early days—master gardeners, Randi Long and Diane McCarthy help Win Culkin, Sue Harty, Carol Keegan and Sue Masterson shape this garden into a pilot program demonstration container garden until Nov. 1.
