WHAT'S UP AT ICLRU?

LAST MINUTE REGISTRATIONS ACCEPTED!

ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY'S NEW WABASH BUILDING
AND THE INTERNATIONAL MUSEUM OF
SURGICAL SCIENCE FIELD TRIP

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12 - 9:30AM—4:30PM

THIS TRIP IS OPEN TO NON-MEMBERS!

TOUR ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY'S NEW WABASH BUILDING

The building is 32 stories and 469 feet high. It's the 2nd tallest university facility in the US and the 6th tallest in the world. After the tour, lunch is 'on your own' in the school cafeteria. Then, the group travels north to the International Museum of Surgical Science, one of Chicago's most unique and educational museums. You can still register on Tuesday (09/03) or Wednesday (09/04).

HAPPY LABOR DAY AND

HAPPY ROSH HASHANA (NEW YEAR)

NOTES FROM THE CENTER

THE CAMPUS WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY, SEPT. 2

RU is finalizing Fall student classroom assignments. Soon, our Fall room requests will be reviewed & confirmed. Our Study Group Confirmation & Waitlist Letters will be mailed on September 9th. Thanks for your patience!

DON'T FORGET...

You can recycle your old electronics gear at Roosevelt. Ask Bob in the Center for more information on how this works. It's a great way to get rid of old DVD/VHS players, computers, printers, etc.

LUNCHTIME PROGRAMS

PLATO'S PLACE

Spending a day on Facebook has once again fooled me into believing I have an actual social life.

PLATO'S PLACE

Wednesday, come to Plato's Place for some lively conversation. Bring your lunch and join the group in room 330 at 11:45 am. On September 4th:

What is the impact of social media technology on interpersonal communication?

TUESDAY & THURSDAY PROGRAMS BACK THIS FALL!

The Tuesday and Thursday lunchtime programs will resume with the Fall Sessions beginning Tues., Sept. 24th.

Tuesdays will be ALONG THE BEATEN PATH coordinated by Henrietta Leary.

Thursdays will be SOCRATES REVENGE coordinated by Steve Novey.

The aim of these new programs is to present an upbeat agenda that includes class participation when possible, with "a little something different" thrown into the mix.

For the first 4 weeks there will be just a Tuesday program, switching back and forth between ALONG THE BEATEN PATH and SOCRATES REVENGE.

As in the past, the time will be 11:45 to 12:45.

Bring your lunch and bring your friends.

ICLRU is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit organization. While affiliated with Roosevelt University, the ICLRU is run by its members, through an elected Board of Directors and the Chairpersons of its various committees. All persons on the Board and the committees are volunteers. All members are encouraged to participate to keep the organization vibrant.

Membership is open to seniors, age 55 and over, who have reached a point in life where they want to pursue their interests in a continuing learning and social environment with a group of like-minded peers.

ICLRU'S MISSION AND VISION

The mission of the ICLRU is to offer its members a non-credit, non-degree educational program together with social and cultural opportunities through which older adults may share their talents, experiences and skills.

Our Vision: To enrich our members' experiences, while making the ICLRU an essential organization for Roosevelt University and our larger community.
