The Village Singers of Lake Zurich

Present

The Village Singers Christmas Concert, Wendy Beyer, Director, will be held on Saturday, December 7th at 7 pm and on Sunday, December 8th at 3 pm.

The Village Singers are comprised of 35 men and women who sing in 4 and 5 part harmony. ICLRU members Bobbi Fields and Mary Falduto have been part of this singing group for many years and the annual concerts have been a very enjoyable part of this season for many audiences, of all ages.

It will be held at The Chapel, 330 S. Old Rand Road, Lake Zurich, IL 60047. Ticket prices: Adults $8.00, children under age 12 are free.

If anyone at ICLRU would like to reserve tickets, and pick them up and pay at the performance, they can contact either one of us, using our info listed below: If not, tickets will be available at the door on the performance dates.

ICLRU is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit organization. While affiliated with Roosevelt University, the ICLRU is run by its members, through an elected Board of Directors and the Chairpersons of its various committees. All persons on the Board and the committees are volunteers. All members are encouraged to participate to keep the organization vibrant.

Membership is open to seniors, age 55 and over, who have reached a point in life where they want to pursue their interests in a continuing learning and social environment with a group of like-minded peers.

ICLRU’S MISSION AND VISION

The mission of the ICLRU is to offer its members a non-credit, non-degree educational program together with social and cultural opportunities through which older adults may share their talents, experiences and skills.

Our Vision: To enrich our members’ experiences, while making the ICLRU an essential organization for Roosevelt University and our larger community.
