NOTES FROM THE CENTER

Fall Study Group Evaluations are online. Please complete an evaluation for each study group you attended, even if you did not attend all the sessions. Click Here to complete the evaluation.

Winter Study Group Proposals are still being accepted. Please help contribute to the success of our organization by planning and presenting a study group this Winter. The form is located at the top of our home page (www.iclru.org). If you’ve been ‘on the fence’ don’t delay, get your proposal in to Steve Wolf right away at: stevengwolf@att.net.

Registration for Winter study groups is planned to begin around December 2. Winter study groups begin Tuesday, January 21, 2014 and end on February 20th.

2013 Veterans Day Discounts, Sales, Deals and Free Meals for our Veterans.

Happy Veterans Day and thank you for your service.

(The Robin Campus is open Veterans Day)

Registration for our Winter Lecture Series, Sponsored by Friendship Village, is planned to begin around December 2. The Winter Lecture Series will be on Friday’s in Alumni Hall on the Schaumburg campus beginning Friday, January 10, 2014 and run through Friday, March 14th.

Brochures for both the Winter study group session and the Winter Lecture Series will be available online (and e-mailed) around December 2nd.

The Holiday Party (December 18th in the cafeteria) is nearly full. There are only a few spaces left. When full, we will begin a wait list. IF YOU ARE REGISTERED FOR THE HOLIDAY PARTY, LET US KNOW IF YOU MUST CANCEL. Either someone on the wait list will be able to go, or we won’t be paying for an unused lunch.

We’re working on updating our Membership Directory. Please let the Center know if there are any changes to your record (address, phone, email, emergency contact, etc.) The updated Directory should be ready in mid-December.
LUNCHTIME PROGRAMS

CLUBS

The Intrepid Travelers Club next meeting is on Monday, Nov. 18, in Room 314 from 11:45 am to 12:45 pm.

Book Ends, the ICLRU Non-Fiction Book Club will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 12th in Room 315 at 3 pm for a lively critique of Gulp: Adventures on the Alimentary Canal, by Mary Roach.

The ICLRU Mah Jongg players are busy planning their playing schedule for the break between the Fall 2013 and Winter 2014 study group sessions. Contact Sue Masterson at skmasterson@comcast.net if you want to play.
THINGS TO DO

This lively trio, led by Chicago drummer/composer Frank Rosaly, will perform a one-of-a-kind concert of creative music. While the group is deeply connected with the jazz tradition, they enjoy blurring the lines between jazz and what is commonly thought of as improvised music.

ICLRU is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit organization. While affiliated with Roosevelt University, the ICLRU is run by its members, through an elected Board of Directors and the Chairpersons of its various committees. All persons on the Board and the committees are volunteers. All members are encouraged to participate to keep the organization vibrant.

Membership is open to seniors, age 55 and over, who have reached a point in life where they want to pursue their interests in a continuing learning and social environment with a group of like-minded peers.

ICLRU’S MISSION AND VISION

The mission of the ICLRU is to offer its members a non-credit, non-degree educational program together with social and cultural opportunities through which older adults may share their talents, experiences and skills.

Our Vision: To enrich our members’ experiences, while making the ICLRU an essential organization for Roosevelt University and our larger community.
