WHAT’S UP AT ICLRU?

Spring Study Group Proposals— Even though the Winter session hasn’t started yet, we are looking for proposals for the Spring. We have a short break between the Winter and Spring and need to get started putting together our Spring program, which begins on March 17th. Send them to Steve Wolf at stevengwolf@att.net by January 17, 2014.

Special Note — In January we will send out the Lecture Confirmation letters and Study Group Confirmation letters in different weeks. We’re doing this because the Lectures start on January 10th and the Study Groups don’t begin until January 21st. We won’t have Study Group rooms assigned until closer to the 21st.

NOTES FROM THE CENTER

TURN YOUR SOUND UP!

The Center will be open normal hours on Monday, December 23rd. We will be closed the rest of the week (12/24-12/27). The Roosevelt campus will be closed on 12/24 and 12/25.

Everyone have a great Holiday Week.

Christmas gift suggestions:

To your enemy, forgiveness.
To an opponent, tolerance.
To a friend, your heart.
To a customer, service.
To all, charity.
To every child, a good example.
To yourself, respect.
PLATO’S PLACE:  Wednesday, come to Plato’s Place for some lively conversation. Bring your lunch and join the group in room 330 at 11:45 am. Our next topic on January 8, 2014 will be:

Do you make New Year’s resolutions?

ICLRU is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit organization. While affiliated with Roosevelt University, the ICLRU is run by its members, through an elected Board of Directors and the Chairpersons of its various committees. All persons on the Board and the committees are volunteers. All members are encouraged to participate to keep the organization vibrant.

Membership is open to seniors, age 55 and over, who have reached a point in life where they want to pursue their interests in a continuing learning and social environment with a group of like-minded peers.

ICLRU’S MISSION AND VISION

The mission of the ICLRU is to offer its members a non-credit, non-degree educational program together with social and cultural opportunities through which older adults may share their talents, experiences and skills.

Our Vision: To enrich our members’ experiences, while making the ICLRU an essential organization for Roosevelt University and our larger community.
