WHAT’S UP AT ICLRU?

There are some seats available for the Winter Lecture, sponsored by Friendship Village, this Friday, Feb. 7: Elizabeth Vorbach, as women’s rights movement leader, Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

Let Bob know, in the Center, if you’d like to attend.

Registration for Spring Study Groups will begin sometime next week, no later than February 7. We’ll notify you by email when online registration is live and the brochure is available on www.iclru.org.

Spring Study Groups begin Mon., March 17 and end Fri., May 16.

NOTES FROM THE CENTER

If you missed Professor, Artemus Ward’s entertaining lecture, he’s posted it to his web page, along with other presentations he’s made. Click here to visit the web page, and scroll down to the Recent Invited Lectures section to view his presentations.

This Spring, why not “stretch your mind” by joining a study group that may be a little out of your “comfort zone.” It could be a great experience. Watch for the brochure next week.
LUNCHETIME PROGRAMS

THE CONSCIOUSNESS WORKSHOP  Tuesdays, 11:45 am, Room 329. A follow-on to Bob Long’s classes on consciousness, Len Larson will utilize and expand on the principles presented in those classes. The program will attempt to answer the questions “So what does this mean to me?” and “How can I use this stuff?” among others developed in the lunchtime sessions. Agenda items for starters are: Discussions of case studies / Experimentation / Meditation development.

PLATO’S PLACE:  Wednesday, come to Plato’s Place for some lively conversation. Bring your lunch and join the group in room 330 at 11:45 am. Our next topic on February 5, 2014 will be: What is the best piece of advice anyone ever gave you? The worst?

WEDNESDAY’S WITH TECHNOLOGY—ONLY 3 WEEKS LEFT TO GET HELP  Mike Thompson and other dedicated volunteers plan to be available from 11:30am to 12:30pm in room 373 on Wednesdays during the Winter Study Groups to help walk-ins with any technology problems that they have with laptops, tablets, phones, etc. No appointment necessary—bring your questions for a one-on-one session.

CLUBS

Book Ends, the ICLRU Non-Fiction Book Club meeting February 20, 2014 will discuss: 100 Most Influential People That Never Lived by the Editors of Time Magazine. Join the group in Room 315 at 3:15 pm (unless otherwise notified). Choose 1 or 2 “People” you would like to talk about.

Mah Jongg is getting back on track in Room 315 after the recent bad weather. Playing days are Monday and Wednesday starting after the morning classes are over.
THINGS TO DO

ICLRU Member Joan Robertson, is having a show of her colored pencil drawings at Friendship Village, in the Atrium of the Bridgegate / Willows area, now through February 28, Please stop by Friendship Village at 350 West Schaumburg Rd., in Schaumburg, to enjoy Joan’s drawings.

The Bruce Blanck Trio and Friends — Sunday Musicale

A continual work in progress, the Bruce Blanck group never performs the same music twice. This energetic jazz ensemble will treat us to some Valentine-flavored improv just in time for Valentine’s Day. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Performances at Arlington Heights Memorial Library February 9, 2014 from 2:00 - 3:00 pm in the Hendrickson Room Register at the info desk, 847-392-0100 or online at www.ahml.info.
ICLRU is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit organization. While affiliated with Roosevelt University, the ICLRU is run by its members, through an elected Board of Directors and the Chairpersons of its various committees. All persons on the Board and the committees are volunteers. All members are encouraged to participate to keep the organization vibrant.

Membership is open to seniors, age 55 and over, who have reached a point in life where they want to pursue their interests in a continuing learning and social environment with a group of like-minded peers.

ICLRU’S MISSION AND VISION

The mission of the ICLRU is to offer its members a non-credit, non-degree educational program together with social and cultural opportunities through which older adults may share their talents, experiences and skills.

Our Vision: To enrich our members’ experiences, while making the ICLRU an essential organization for Roosevelt University and our larger community.
