HOLIDAY PARTY HIGHLIGHTS

Kathie Newsted, waiting for Santa...

Many thanks to Sue Harty for making the arrangements for our party and to Steve Wolf, our gracious host, for providing the musical entertainment.

Everyone enjoyed the “New Old-Time Radio Drama for the Season” presented by The Big-2-Do Radio Players, including ICLRU member Judith Ross and her husband, Marc Ross.

Special thanks and kudos to Marc Ross for writing the radio-drama script for ICLRU.

Thanks also to Lori Kandl, for videotaping portions of the event. Click below for a short clip of the festivities

Forensics & History: The Lost Dauphin of France
Monday, Jan. 5 from 7–8:30 pm in Rasmussen South*

Following the French Revolution, the Dauphin (Crown Prince) Louis-Charles was imprisoned and reportedly died in captivity. Over 100 individuals have claimed to be the Lost Dauphin, supporting the claim that the royal prince escaped his fate. Dr. Hal Tinberg’s presentation describes the use of forensic testing to find out the true fate of the son of Marie Antoinette. Registration required.*

The Essential Edgar Allen Poe
Monday, Jan. 19 from 7:00–8:30 pm in the Combined Room*

William Pack exhumes the tragic life and remarkable writings of this American genius. Dramatic storytelling, story readings, and a couple of William’s signature performances bring Poe’s disturbing world to life. The program is best suited for teens and adults. Registration required.*

*Registration is required, Central Library Information Desk, or by phone, 847.923.3347.

ICLRU is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit organization. While affiliated with Roosevelt University, the ICLRU is run by its members, through an elected Board of Directors and the Chairpersons of its various committees. All persons on the Board and the committees are volunteers. All members are encouraged to participate to keep the organization vibrant.

Membership is open to seniors, age 55 and over, who have reached a point in life where they want to pursue their interests in a continuing learning and social environment with a group of like-minded peers.

ICLRU’S MISSION AND VISION

The mission of the ICLRU is to offer its members a non-credit, non-degree educational program together with social and cultural opportunities through which older adults may share their talents, experiences and skills.

Our Vision: To enrich our members’ experiences, while making the ICLRU an essential organization for Roosevelt University and our larger community.
