X. St Pat's/New Member Welcoming Party Update
   Originally the budget for this funded event was $900. It was raised to $1,100 in February. This was estimated to provide food and beverages for up to 80 members. If registration warrants, the Executive Committee will consider increasing funding in March.
XI. Other
Debby Miller learned a great deal about Carolyn Simons from her obituary and at the visitation for family and friends. Debby suggested that ICLRU members should learn more about each other.

Steve Wolf suggested that this could easily be done as a table exercise at the June Annual Meeting/Town Hall. Index cards and pencils could be provided at each table and could be completed by members. These could be shared in future editions of the Update and/or shared at the table.

Steve Wolf suggested that the $500 memorial donation from Tom Keegan for his wife and past President, Carol Keegan, be used to have a portrait made of Carol to be hung at Roosevelt University. Henrietta Leary knows an artist and will find out whether this is a feasible undertaking.

Cathy Jensen suggested that if this idea is adopted, ICLRU members might be invited to a ceremony for the unveiling of the portrait.

Audrey Beauvais informed Steve Wolf that the daughter of former ICLRU member, Jack Crump, is Director of Activities at Luther Village. She is curious whether ICLRU would be interested in offering events at Luther Village.

Kathy Newsted will look into Luther Village as a potential site for future presentations.

XII. The March meeting date will be one week later than usual, on March 23, at 11:45 am in Rm. 317.

XIII. Debby Miller moved for adjournment, 2nd by Kathie Newsted and the motion carried.
