Feb.11 Humor and Healthy Aging, Susan Salach, Winter Lecture Series

Under the heading to the left "What's Up at ICL?" you'll see that the Winter 2011 Study Group Evaluations will be available online this coming Monday. Please complete an evaluation for each Study Group you are attending this Winter. Your evaluations are very important to the Coordinators. If you need paper copies, you can pick them up in the Center.

Last Friday we had a wonderful lecture called "Timeless Voices of Aviation." If you weren't there and want to see what it was about, or if you want to see some of the interviews conducted with pioneers of aviation, check out the link below.

Winter Lecture Series speaker, Bob Levi

OPERA IN POP CULTURE OR, WHERE HAVE I HEARD THAT TUNE BEFORE?

Bob Levi, is an expert in opera and pop culture. His topic is "Opera in Pop Culture or, Where have I Heard That Tune Before?" People often don't realize they've been exposed to opera through movies, radio, TV, recordings, and advertising. This program focuses on "The Golden Age of Opera" from Mozart to Puccini, as well as how their beautiful music has been used in popular media over the past 70+ years.
