NOTES from the Center

WE'RE BACK!

After a one-month hiatus, the ICLRU Update is back.

Your Update was sick & tired of the cold & snow and spent some time in warmer climes. Now that it's back, if you have anything you would like to see included in future Updates, please let the Office Manager know. For new members, ICLRU Center hours are from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm Monday - Thursday in Rm. 316.

Spring Study Groups Begin on Monday, March 21, 2011 at 9:00 am.

Please use a tent card with your name on it in all your study groups. This helps everyone learn who you are. If you need a tent card please visit the Center in Room 316.

BE CAREFUL! We continue to have members accidentally trip on chairs in the classrooms. WATCH YOUR STEP. Also, when you leave for break or after class, be sure to push your chair all the way in.

"Chicago's Maxwell Street"

Final Winter Lecture
March 18, 2011

Dr. Steve Burnett will present the story and history of Maxwell Street in Chicago, the topic of his doctoral dissertation.

Written by Steve in his review of a book about Maxwell Street:

"Chicago's Maxwell Street" is a crucial document offering a window into the vibrant and colorful world of Chicago's legendary Maxwell Street Market.

For more than a century, Maxwell Street introduced ethnic groups to
