THINGS TO DO

Dead Composers Society
Orchestra—FREE CONCERT

Date and time: Sunday, October 21, 2 p.m.

Location: Arlington Heights
Memorial Library in the Hendrickson Room

The Dead Composers Society Orchestra presents an eerie program of classical favorites for a scary "ghoul" time! There's a "ghost" of a chance you will hear many "tricks and treats" from Chopin's "Funeral March" to American composer Charles Ives' "Halloween." This trio of misfit musicians - flute, violin, and cello - frightfully brings to life the "spirits" of the season with "boo"-tiful music

THE CHICAGO PENCIL SOCIETY OF AMERICA, IS HOSTING THE MIDWEST COLOR 2012 SHOW

Artist and ICLRU Member, Joan Robertson's work is being exhibited now through Nov. 1, in a juried show at The Prairie Center for the Arts, 201 Schaumburg Court in Schaumburg. The work can be seen from 8 am—6 pm Mon.-Fri.

As some of you may remember, in past years we had an informal activity called "Dinners for Eight." ICLers would organize into groups of 8 and get together for dinners at the homes of members. It was a great way for members to informally get to know each other, and have a good time as well.

Since the initial announcement, there has been quite a bit of interest, but several people had a standing conflict with the proposed schedule of the 2nd weekend of the month. So, if you are interested, contact Audrey Bouvais at the e-mail address below and let her know which Saturday night during the month works best for them. Nothing is written in stone yet, concerning the schedule. Audrey will be as accommodating as she can be.

For questions or to sign up, e-mail: atbeauvais@sbcglobal.net

We are beginning to work on our 2013 Membership Directory. If there are changes in your address, phone number, e-mail, or emergency contact information, please stop by the Center before the Fall Study Group Sessions end or send an e-mail to Officemanager@iclru.org with the new information. Thanks.

To ease the voting experience, Florida is experimenting with new voting machines.

THE PIANO SHOWCASE

Steve Wolf coordinated a Piano Showcase for Friendship Village, last week.

This ICLRU-sponsored event was specifically designed for residents of Friendship Village. Professor Winston Choi's students from Roosevelt University performed for the group and our picture is courtesy of Jeannette Magdaleno, of Friendship Village.

Thanks, Steve and Jeannette, for your work in putting The Piano Showcase together.
