Ample free parking, unique gift items, and the relaxed atmosphere of a quaint, historic shopping district make Long Grove a great destination.

Notes from the Center

Auditing RU Classes: If you plan on auditing a class for the Spring semester, you must have your form filled out and into the Center by December 20, 2010.

Winter Study Groups and Winter Lecture Series: By now you should have seen the Brochures online at www.ICLRU.org. Online registration begins December 13th. You can mail it to the ICLRU Center or drop off your registration anytime. If the Center isn't open, you can slide it under the door.

Spring Study Groups: I know it seems early, but we have to start planning for Spring. If you're interested in being a coordinator for the Spring 2011 Session, which begins the week of March 21, please notify Steve Wolf with your ideas at — stevengwolf@att.net.

The ICLRU Seminars Committee thanks all the Architecture Seminar attendees for their enthusiastic response to the seminar and for the recommendations and thoughts articulated in the survey. We look forward to planning future seminars.
