

WHAT'S UP AT ICLRU?

Spring study groups are under way. Hope you're enjoying them.

A couple of highlights this first week were:

1) In Play Reading (Monday mornings) they scared themselves with a reading of Orson Welles' "War of the Worlds";

2) In Teleplays of the Twilight Zone Era (Wednesday mornings), Rod Serling's award winning "Requiem for a Heavyweight", first shown on Playhouse 90 in 1956, was viewed and discussed.

These 2 study group, and others, have room for additional members. See Bob in the Center if you are interested in an additional study group or two.
