Lunchtime Programs 11:45 am—12:45 pm (Bring Your Lunch)

ENCORE AND MORE, Rm. 314, Tues., April 3 Harry Trumfio

Propelled by the industrial revolution and female authors, women began to question their place in society. We will look at the movements and the ladies who led the charge for equality and fairness for the feminine gender; a battle that still rages today.

PLATO'S PLACE, Rm. 330, Wed., April 4
How would YOU change our national healthcare system?

THE LIGHTER SIDE! Rm. 314, Thurs., April 5
A Southern perspective on the Civil War in song-music and camp scenes in a documentary featuring the fine 2nd South Carolina String Band.

Things To Do

'50-Minute Hamlet' Palatine Main Library, 700 N. North Court Thurs., Apr. 12 at 7 pm FREE
The Shakespeare Project of Chicago makes its Palatine debut with this riveting 2-actor adaptation of Shakespeare's Hamlet. A discussion with the actors will follow the performance. INFO: 847-358-5881 Registration can be made from this link: <https://il.evanced.info/palatine/lib/eventssignup.asp?ID=5886>

Sunday Musicale: Sun., Apr. 22 at 2 pm. The Gambling Husband is the most performed opera of the entire 18th century. The work dates from 1715 and was written by Giuseppe Orlandini, a composer who would otherwise be forgotten were it not for the extraordinary popularity of this opera. It was originally performed in Italian but has been translated into English by the performers Peter and Kathleen van de Graaff. Register at the Reception Desk, 847-392-0100, or online at www.ahml.info.
