

ICLRU UPDATE

INSTITUTE FOR CONTINUED LEARNING, ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY

MORE THINGS TO DO

The Northwest Fourth-Fest, on the Sears Centre grounds in Hoffman Estates, is the northwest Chicago suburb's biggest Fourth of July celebration put on in partnership by Elgin, Hanover Park, Hanover Township, and Hoffman Estates. The four-day festival features the region's largest fireworks display on July 4th, delicious food from over 20 local vendors, carnival rides, fun for the whole family, live entertainment daily, and over 6,000 free parking spaces .

For more information and a complete schedule of events, please visit www.NorthwestFourthFest.com! Admission and parking are free!

Palatine
concert band

Don't miss the free performance on July 11 of the Palatine Concert Band, Ronald H. Polancich, Conductor.

Gordon Palmer, (in Cubby Blue above and right), ICLRU Member, Coordinator, and trumpet prodigy, is a member of the Band. And, the concert is on Gordon's birthday!

Details: Wed., July 11, at 8:00 pm at the Fred P. Hall Amphitheater, 262 East Palatine Rd., in Palatine.

For the concert repertoire and directions, CLICK HERE. Note: Gordon will be conducting one of the selections.

