Glessner House, designed by H.H. Richardson, was completed in 1887. It was designated a Chicago Landmark in 1970, and listed on the National Register of Historic Places as a Historic Landmark in 1976.

Built in 1836, the Clarke House is Chicago's oldest building and is the only surviving example of the Greek Revival style from the early 1800's.

The NVAM is the world's only museum focusing on the subject of war from an artistic perspective. It contains more than 1,400 works of art, including paintings, sculpture, poetry and music.
