CLASS LINEUP

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9
9:30 - 11:30

DISCOVERING SURPRISING LOCALES IN ENGLAND

Presenters: Mike and Marilyn Glass

(3 sessions - August 9, 16, 23)

ZOOM

Although England's 50,000 square miles equal the size of Alabama, that's where the comparison ends. Join us as The Great Courses talented lecturer Professor Patrick Allitt conducts a tour of the North of England; the English Midlands; England's West Country; Oxford and Cambridge Universities; London's Streets and Parks; and Britain's Estates and Gardens. We suspect you'll be pleasantly surprised as you experience the wealth of sights and history available in the country that flies the Union Jack. NOTE: This Intersession is offered on Tuesdays on Zoom, and Thursdays On Campus. Register for Zoom or On Campus; not both.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9
9:30 - 11:30

HAPPILY EVER LAUGHTER

Presenter: JoAnn Galuzzi

(2 Sessions – August 9, 10)

ON CAMPUS

Research shows that laughter really is “the best Medicine.” We will explore the health benefits of laughter, the kinds of humor that make us laugh (and a few kinds we should avoid) as well as practical ways to infuse more laughter into our lives. This class is interactive, so please bring a cell phone or tablet and your best sense of humor.

- Title from an article by Peter Daskoch appearing in Psychology Today.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10
9:30-11:30

HAPPILY EVER LAUGHTER

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10
1:00 – 3:00

A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE OF THE MIDDLE AGES – FALL PREVIEW
Presenter: Andrea Zietlow
ON CAMPUS

This Intersession presentation will be a preview of a study group which will be offered in Fall, 2022. The Middle Ages cover the 1,000-year period from the fall of the Roman Empire (roughly 400 CE) to the beginning of the Renaissance (1400 CE). In Europe, it is best known for feudalism, the importance of religion, the signing of the Magna Carta, the Hundred Years War, and the Black Death. But in China, India, the Middle East, Africa, and the Americas many important advances and scientific innovations were taking place long before they appeared in Europe. Come learn about the Middle Ages in these diverse and fascinating cultures around the world.

NOTE: This Intersession is being offered as a Hybrid class, simultaneously On Campus and on Zoom. Register for On Campus or Zoom; not both.

JEWISH INFLUENCES ON MODERN CHINA

Presenters: Les Miller, Pam Novey

(2 Sessions – Aug 17, 24)

ZOOM

This presentation was inspired by Jonathan Kaufman's book The Last Kings of Shanghai: The Rival Jewish Dynasties That Helped Create Modern China. This book presents the fascinating and little known story of how two Jewish refugee families from Baghdad developed business empires which helped Shanghai and Hong Kong become the commercial centers of modern China. We will present an overview of this history, and discuss how Shanghai became a refuge for Europeans Jews escaping from the Holocaust during World War II. NOTE: This Intersession is being offered as a Hybrid class, simultaneously On Campus and on Zoom. Register for On Campus or Zoom; not both.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17

9:30 – 11:30

LET US EAT CAKE

Presenters: Joan Brody, Jewell Krakowiak

ON CAMPUS

We will watch The Culinary Institute of America video, “The Everyday Gourmet: Baking Pastries and Desserts” and gain a greater understanding of essential processes in baking, no matter what level you start from. We will learn insider baking tricks, how to prevent baking mistakes and how to correct them if made. We will also try a wonderful, easy chocolate cake recipe.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17

9:30 – 11:30

RETIREMENT INCOME PLANNING

THE HUMAN CALLING: THREE THOUSAND YEARS OF EASTERN AND WESTERN PHILOSOPHICAL HISTORY

Presenter: Andrea Zietlow

ZOOM

Guest speaker Daofeng He's illuminating new book, THE HUMAN CALLING: Three Thousand Years of Eastern and Western Political Philosophy (Morgan James Faith; April 26, 2022) is a journey into the past to help us navigate into the future. He believes that we must understand the origins and development of the competing philosophies, beliefs, and ideologies between the East and the West in order to truly understand the roots of conflicts and turbulence in the world today. This will allow us to reconstruct the sacred origin of the modern universal value system and help people rediscover the dignity and public grace of individual life.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17

THURSDAY, AUGUST 18

1:00 – 3:15

FLOOD IN THE DESERT

Presenters: Bob and Sue Masterson

ON CAMPUS

Join us as we view an American Experience documentary, looking back on a largely unknown American disaster that occurred in 1928. Along the way we'll learn about William Mulholland, considered the Father of Modern Los Angeles, and we'll also see what the building of the Los Angeles Aqueduct meant to southern California (think California Water Wars). After the film we will discuss the current water situation in the Southwestern United States, and elsewhere in the country.

NOTE: This class will meet from 1:00-3:15.

NOTE: This Intersession is being offered as a Hybrid class, simultaneously On Campus and on Zoom. Register for On Campus or Zoom; not both.
